There is something about the start of a new year that gives us the feeling of a fresh start and a new beginning. There is really no difference between December 31 and January 1. Nothing mystical occurs at midnight on December 31. Yet many people make New Year’s Resolutions at the start of the new year. Lose weight, eat healthier, exercise more, read the Bible every day, spend more time with family…those are probably some of the common ones. The New Year is often viewed as a new beginning, a time to get back on track.

I did a quick search to find the only 8% of people follow through with resolutions. Why is it that most cannot follow through with a goal or resolution? It’s not that we do it on purpose. Though intentions are usually very good, for many it seems that their determination loses steam in just a short while. The same kind of frustration can be seen in our spiritual lives.

We try to live godly lives, pleasing and free from sin but we fail. It’s impossible to be perfect because of our sinful human condition. With such a grim outlook for success one might find it easy to not even try. The apostle Paul speaks to this temptation “What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase? By no means!” (Romans 6:1-2). You see we are not perfect people. We always mess things up, hurt one another and do wrong. Luckily, for us, God gives New Year in His forgiveness.

As believers of Christ we are blessed with the assurance that we don't have to wait for a new year to be given a clean slate. God grants forgiveness each time we ask for it. Every day, multiple times a day. That is something to find resolve in.

DINNER FOR SIX

“Dinner for six” is a fellowship program that will allow our church family to meet new people and become better acquainted with others. Our church family continues to grow and we have two services, which means there are many people who don't get a chance to meet each other. How does it work? Groups of six people will meet once per month over the three month period. Group members can decide to meet at a home for dinner, go out to eat or do an activity together. It's an easy commitment of one meal while you gain two meals and new relationships. If you have questions ask Nancy Reich. Sign up at the Welcome center.
VEAP
Food donations are needed, please remember to bring your non-parishable food items for VEAP. Financial donation to VEAP are also accepted.

DEAR FRIENDS,
Once again you have provided Sharing & Caring Hands with a full load of socks. Your response to the sock drive is truly amazing. Thanks to all of you, Mary Jo Copeland at Sharing & Caring Hands is fully prepared for her Thanksgiving service work.
On Tuesday, November 25 Denise delivered 3,237 pairs of socks to enable Mary Jo to provide warm socks for those in need. She delivered 22 large, plastic storage totes.
Our family and friends delivered again with a tremendous 1,142 pairs of socks. In addition to this support, Scott’s coworkers at Wings Financial also joined in the sock drive. They contributed an overwhelming 2,095 pairs of socks this year! That allowed us to nearly triple volume that we normally deliver. Wow, we are humbled by their generosity.
We thank you for your support of this work and for giving to those in need. May you and your families be blessed at Christmas and throughout 2015!

Denise & Scott Ramsdale

BUNCO
Plan on attending the first Bunco Party of 2015 on Saturday January 10th from 2:00 to 4:00 pm in the fellowship hall. This is sponsored by the Faith Workers Bunco is fun and easy for all ages. Please bring a snack to share.

FITNESS FOR OLDER ADULTS
This is for older adults who want to stay active, but might be limited in their physical capabilities. Did you know that one of our members, Mindy Shulfer teaches Seniors Fitness? This class includes stretching, balancing and some strengthening. About 80% of the class is taught seated in a chair. Some classes include the use of fitness balls, yoga straps and hand weights. If you are interested in attending a class in Mendota Heights on Monday or Friday mornings at 9:15am, please see Mindy for pricing on class packages. If you want to learn more about the services available at the studio and healing center, you can visit www.greenlotusyogactr.com.

ALTAR FLOWERS
The opportunity to donate Altar/Chancel Flowers for our worship services is available for all members and friends of Holy Emmanuel. The cost for a single bouquet is $36.50 which includes delivery. A “Flower Chart” is posted in the Lobby on the bulletin board by the Office. If you would like to donate flowers please place your name on the chart by the desired date and indicate if the flowers are given in honor of a special occasion. Make checks payable to Holy Emmanuel and write “Altar Flowers” on the memo line.

PRAYER PARTNERS
Prayer Partners will be available after each worship service today in the front left side of the Sanctuary. If you would like someone to pray with you please make your way to the front after the congregation has been dismissed. If you would like the Pastor to pray for you (or for someone else) throughout the week, you are invited to fill out the yellow “Prayer & Praise” card in the pew and place it in the offering plate. Please indicate if your request should be broadened, via e-mail, to include all prayer partners in the congregation. Thank you.

THRIVENT
Thank you to the Central Minneapolis Chapter of Thrivent Financial Services for the gift to help cover the cost of flowers at the altar. Our Thrivent advocates are: Paula Cherveny, Gayle Cedergren and Kristi Bauer

ECC Scholarships Awards 2014 Fall

The ECC Scholarship Fund Committee awarded four $250 scholarships this fall. These two awards were presented at the second service on October 10th.

Brian & Lindsey Jeannette with Anthony, Joselyn
Diane Griffin, for Granddaughter, Isabel Schumm

The following two awards were presented later at Open Arms.

Aracelly Mena Dominguez with Scott
Kaitlynn Bannister with Jazlyn

Holy Emmanuel established the Open Arms Christian Early Childhood Center Scholarship Endowment Fund in October 2011. The ECC Scholarship Fund provides tuition assistance/scholarships for children attending Open Arms. Approximately 5% of the fund value is awarded annually. The first scholarship was awarded in the fall of 2012. Through 2014, 16 scholarships in the total amount of $3800 have been awarded.

Holy Emmanuel's ministry at Open Arms is strengthened by your gifts to the ECC Scholarship Fund. You can make a gift to the ECC Scholarship Fund any time, to celebrate a special occasion or to honor loved ones who have passed. Contributions of all sizes are important in supporting the growth of this ministry.

You can also help grow this ministry fund of Holy Emmanuel through gifts from your estate. Through effective estate planning it is possible to maximize your stewardship of financial resources. Bequests from your estate to the ECC Scholarship Fund can be in the form of cash, stocks, bonds, life insurance, real estate or personal property. Charitable Remainder Trusts are another option that enables you to make a gift to the ECC Scholarship Fund while retaining income for yourself or your beneficiaries. Nancy & I have worked with an Estate Planning Consultant for MN South and have included the Open Arms Scholarship Fund in our Estate Plan.

I would like to thank the other members of the Scholarship Endowment Fund Committee Bob Chellew, Sara Asper, & Natalie Mylander. If you have any questions or would like to review estate-planning options please let us know.

Our Care Barrel friends in Liberia!
Hi Holy Emmanuel,
It has been a wonderful time with us at the ministry and the church. The Ministry celebrated its 6th Anniversary on December 9, 2014; below are some photos. The membership of the ministry excluding children stands at 75. Children attending the ministry services according to records range from 100-125.

The Ministry members will appreciate if you were to send provision such as food and clothing. We also need teaching materials as we have almost exhausted the previous reading materials sent. Please do not forget to send us counseling and prayer materials and Bibles. Do you have talking bibles? We will loved to have few pieces for those who can not read and write. Reading glasses will also do for about 30 adults reading our materials.

Hope to get to you as we pray for each other in ministry. My activities at the Church are great as we have just concluded our District conference.
I wish you and your family Merry Christmas and A Happy New year.

Kind regards,
Rev. Blidi Nimely
A note from our sponsored missionary

The Siberian Lutheran Mission Society

Dear supporters of the Siberian Lutheran Mission Society (SLMS) and the Siberian Evangelical Lutheran Church (SELC);

Greetings from Gelnhausen, Germany!

I recently returned to Germany from attending the annual SELC seminary symposium. The theme was: The Church in Today’s Culture. Charles Evanson and I were invited to deliver theological papers, along with several SELC clergy. The symposium opened on Friday evening with the delivery of a theological paper, followed with the Divine Service with Bishop Vsevolod Lytkin presiding. Papers were delivered on Saturday and continued through the Sunday liturgy, concluding with a panel discussion to close the symposium. Over 50 people from Siberia and other parts of Russia, as well as seminary students from Ukraine and Belerus, attended the symposium to listen to papers and ask questions. This is a healthy sign, to see a church body which is growing theologically and catechizing her people.

As we enter the season of Advent we can also remember the challenges of the church’s mission. The Siberian Evangelical Lutheran Church has emerged out of a tradition of Lutheranism in Russia, dating back to the 16th century. Lutherans settled in Siberia at the same time when Lutherans were also sailing to North America. So, Lutheranism has a long history in Siberia.

As you prepare your Advent gifts to various mission activities throughout the world, please consider our fellow Lutherans in Siberia. The mission of the Siberian Lutheran Mission Society (SLMS) is to support the work of the Siberian pastors and the needs of their congregations by providing financial assistance which is designated for congregations, rental of church buildings, housing costs, travel expenses to visit congregations and parishioners in remote locations, deliver humanitarian aid and mission outreach programs. Your prayers for the growth and health of the Siberian Evangelical Lutheran Church are especially important. Your donations make you part of this mission.

Please understand that the SLMS operates with no overhead expenses. All work is on a volunteer basis. This means that 100% of your donations go directly to the mission. You may pay by credit card by using the link on the SLMS website (see the sidebar at: http://siberianlutheranmissions.com/) or send a check to:

You may learn more about the SLMS by visiting our website. Also check the sidebar for newsletters and documentary videos. Although, I recommend all of the videos, our newest documentary shows the work the SELC is doing in remote areas of Siberia: http://siberianlutheranmissions.com/slms-resources-for-you/video/the-other-half-of-the-truth-2009/. I pray you have a blessed Advent and Feast of the Incarnation of our Lord!

Peace,
Rev. Daniel S. Johnson

Advent 1, 2014
Stewardship doesn’t have to be difficult. We often make it more difficult than it need be. The funda-mentals of stewardship come from answering these basic questions: Who are you? To whom do I give? And how much? It’s that simple.

So who are you? Look at the Table of Duties in the Small Catechism. Are you a hearer of God’s Word?
Are you a citizen of society? Are you a member of a family? Stewardship covers these three estates:
church, society, family. We don’t particularly struggle to give to society or family. Our struggles, our difficulties and questions, arise in giving to the church.

So what are our stewardship duties as members of the church? The Table of Duties gives us a guide. If you are a hearer, a member of the church who receives instruction, St. Paul taught: “Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor” (Gal 6:6). This means that the local congregation is primary.

The primary recipient of stewardship resides here. Your pastor is the one called to preach the Gospel to you and administer the Lord’s blessed sacraments to you. Your congregation is the place where those things are given out. Therefore, we give to the local congregation to ensure that this continues. We don’t vote with our giving. We don’t let the pastor or the congregation know we are unhappy by how we give: because we are supposed to see our giving as giving to our Lord!

Thus, when God calls us to give to the church, He has His work in mind – especially right where we live. For “the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel” (1 Cor 9:14). “Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows” (Gal 6:7).

How much do we give to the local congregation? Our only instructions are these: to give regularly (1 Cor 6:1–2), proportionally
(1 Cor 16:1–2; 2 Cor 8:12), and generously (2 Cor 8:20) of our first fruits (Gen 4:4; Prov 3:9; Lev 27:30) with a spirit of eagerness
(2 Cor 9:2), earnestness (2 Cor 8:7), cheerfulness (2 Cor 9:7), and love (2 Cor 8:23).

In other words, giving to the church is not to be an afterthought, given after everything else is spent. In this way, it is deliberate. We set it aside beforehand, before anything else is spent. From those first fruits, we set aside a proportionate and generous amount. Ten percent was the standard for the Israelites. This was a command for them. We’re not bound to that command in the same way as they were. Just like we are not bound to all the regulations of the Sabbath day (no physical labor, no hot meals, etc.).
But the pattern remains: Christians still gather for worship once a week, for how could we do less than the Israelites did? Likewise, does it seem right that we would support the New Testament ministry at a rate less than the Israelites supported the Old Testament ministry?

And how are we to give it? We give it with eagerness and earnestness. We give it cheerfully and with love, not out of compulsion.
For through the preaching of the Gospel and the administration of the Sacraments, God has made us His children, forgiven us all our sins, given us grace upon grace, promised us life everlasting with Him in His kingdom, and filled us with His own Spirit, the Holy Spirit. This makes giving a joy. For it is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35).

It’s that easy. And it is joyful. For in stewardship, our gracious and giving Lord invites us to take part in the work that He accomplishes here on earth, providing for the ongoing preaching of the Gospel as well as those who are in need. Taking part in that, makes all our work holy work, work that is done in service to the Lord as priestly members of His kingdom.

“One” Painting

Ephesians 4:4-6 talks a lot about one. Create one painting that says it all.

What you need:
- Foam letters or letter stickers
- White painting canvas
- Acrylic paints
- Paintbrush or sponge
- Water

What you do:
1. Place letters on the canvas to spell out the “ones” in Ephesians 4:4-6 (one body, one Spirit, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God).
2. Paint over the letters, using various colors.
3. When the paint is dry, peel off the letters to reveal words that explain important Bible truths.
4. If desired, finish by painting some number 1’s in any blank spots.

One Baptism

The “one” theme of Ephesians 4:4-6 assures us that we need to be baptized only once. Yet a relationship with God involves approaching him with a humble heart each day.

Directions: Inside the 1, fill in words using the spaces as a guide. Then unscramble the circled and boxed letters to reveal John’s message about baptism in Mark 1:4.
